

Contents

Introduction, by María Casado and Manuel Jesús López Baroni	11
1. THE OBJECT OF BIOETHICS	17
1. Introduction	17
2. The disciplinary specificity of bioethics	19
2.1. Interdisciplinarity	19
2.2. Global nature	20
2.3. Secularism	21
2.4. Pluralism	21
2.5. Possibilism	22
2.6. Social nature	22
3. The main thematic areas of bioethics	23
4. Definitions of bioethics	27
5. Paradigms in bioethics	28
5.1. Principlism versus virtue ethics	29
5.2. The commercialization of the human body: the Anglo-American model versus the continental model	32
5.3. Religious bioethics versus secular bioethics	34
6. Recommended reading	34
2. THE ORIGINS OF BIOETHICS	37
1. Introduction	37
2. Models for the origins of bioethics	38
2.1. “Origins of bioethics (1)” – “origins of the neologism (1)”	38
2.2. “Origins of bioethics (1)” – “origins of the neologism (o)”	44
2.3. “Origins of bioethics (o)” – “origins of the neologism (1)”	45
2.4. “Origins of bioethics (o)” – “origins of the neologism (o)”	54
3. Recommended reading	54

3. PRINCIPLES, VALUES AND CITIZENS' RIGHTS WITH RESPECT TO BIOMEDICINE AND BIOTECHNOLOGY.....	57
1. Introduction	57
2. Dignity	58
3. Autonomy	65
3.1. Informed consent.....	66
3.2. The right to be informed of the consequences of medical treatment	69
3.3. The right to refuse treatment or withdraw consent at any time	70
3.4. The right not to be informed (or the right not to know)	71
3.5. Consent through advance directives	72
4. Justice	72
4.1. "To each person, the same"	72
4.2. "To each according to his work"	73
4.3. "From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs"	74
4.4. "To each according to his worth"	75
4.5. Justice as "social justice"	75
5. Prohibition of financial gain from human body parts	76
6. Rights in genomics	79
6.1. Genes as the heritage of humanity	79
6.2. The right for predictive trials to only have a medical or scientific purpose	80
6.3. The right not to be discriminated against	81
6.4. The prohibition of making financial gain from genetic heritage	83
7. Recommended reading	84
4. SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AND VOLUNTARY TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY	87
1. Introduction	87
2. Consequentialist arguments	88
3. The value of the life of the foetus and women's rights	90
4. Regulation in Spain	92
4.1. Regulation before the enactment of the Law of Legal Time Limits	92
4.2. The Organic Law of Sexual and Reproductive Health and Voluntary Termination of Pregnancy	94
5. Towards a European canon	114
6. Recommended reading	125
5. ASSISTED REPRODUCTION	127
1. Introduction	127

2. Regulation of assisted reproduction techniques in Spain.....	128
3. Social aspects of assisted reproduction	131
3.1. Sex selection	133
3.2. Oocyte donation.....	135
3.3. Cryopreservation of oocytes by young women.....	136
3.4. Donor anonymity.....	137
3.5. “Saviour siblings”	138
3.6. Surrogate motherhood.....	140
4. Recommended reading.....	147
6. THE END OF LIFE	149
1. Introduction	149
2. Underlying values: from the sanctity to the quality of life	151
3. Classic but rather obscure distinctions: active/passive euthanasia and ordinary/extraordinary means	153
4. The terms of the debate and the question of dignity	157
5. Euthanasia in relation to fundamental rights	160
6. Legislation in the autonomous communities of Spain	162
7. The legal framework of advance directives	166
8. The right to live (and die) in freedom	169
9. Palliative care	172
10. Recommended reading	174
7. TRANSPLANTS	177
1. Introduction	177
2. Historical and legal context	178
3. Bioethical aspects of removing organs and tissues from living persons	183
4. Issues for debate: presumed consent and brain death	186
4.1. Consent, presumed or express	187
4.2. The criterion of brain death	187
5. Xenotransplants	188
6. Recommended reading	191
8. BIOETHICS AND ENVIRONMENTALISM	193
1. Introduction	193
2. Prior issues	194
2.1. Environmentalism in the early days of bioethics	194
2.2. Environmentalism in the great metanarratives	194
2.3. Religions and economics	195

2.4. The use of animals	197
2.5. The anthropological scale as an erroneous scale	199
2.6. Human stupidity	200
3. The narratives of environmentalism	201
3.1. “Anthropocentrism (1)” – “biocentrism (o)”	201
3.2. “Anthropocentrism (1)” – “biocentrism (1)”	205
3.3. “Anthropocentrism (1)” – “biocentrism (1)”	213
3.4. “Anthropocentrism (o)” – “biocentrism (o)”	214
4. Assessment of the narratives	215
5. Recommended reading	216